L'AMBROISIE

Lalande de Pomerol

Appellation : Lalande-de-Pomerol

Area : 2 Ha

Varietals : 100% Merlot

Soil : Deep gravelly soil incorporating iron components.

Location : Lalande-de-Pomerol

Average Production : 3 000 bottles

Ageing : 18 months (100% oak barrels)

Owner : Jean-Louis Trocard

L'Ambroisie is produced on a 2-Ha vineyard planted by my grandfather 60 years ago. The wine grows on an exceptional hilly terroir with a highly complex gravelly soil. Consisting of 100% Merlot and produced with a very low yield per Ha, this wine is the perfect expression of the outstanding result that can be obtained with Merlot on the right bank : beautiful maturity, concentration and finesse. L'Ambroisie is then aged 18 months in 100% new oak barrels. This wine with a non-conspicuous labelling and referring to the favourite drink of the ancient Greek Gods is specially dedicated for highly refined connoisseurs..

TASTING COMMENTS of Thomas Marquant our Cellar Master :

2008 : Very deep red color, almost black. Black fruits nose, bilberry, plum and cherry. Lots of freshness. The oak is well integrated and not dominating over the fruit. The mouth is very juicy with smoke character. This wine is very complex full bodied with an incredible freshness that leads to a perfect balance. Long, very long with black cherries.

2009 : Dark red, intense and very deep. Nose with lots of finesse and power. Black fruit, such as notes of cherries in brandy, but also flavors of licorice, chocolate and vanilla blend to give the wine an aromatic complexity captivating. The mouth is the same level, the power comes gradually, more and more volume. A lot of fat, roundness and a very nice balance. There is the same explosion of flavors on the finish and a very nice aftertaste. This is a great wine.

2010 : Deep red, almost black. Very complex nose, invaded by black fruit and violet aromas. The fruit is pure, ripe black currant. Great elegance and freshness. Toasty oak, caramel and cocoa. The mouth is characterised from the attack by the smoothness, very fine tannins, harmonious and tasty. Creamy side, licorice and menthol flavors. Very long.

2011 : Very deep red. Sweet nose, mesmerizing. Great aromatic complexity, power black fruits mixed with a nice minerality, lots of freshness and delicacy. Toasted woody notes of toffee and violets. Mouth full from the attack, grew more powerful tannins smooth, very delicate. Only velvet. There are aromas of black fruit (blackcurrant, blueberry) and caramel of great intensity that invade mouth. Very long. Beautiful Merlot.
